WILDERNESS TOURS

Regeneration Project

Wilderness Tours Regeneration Project:

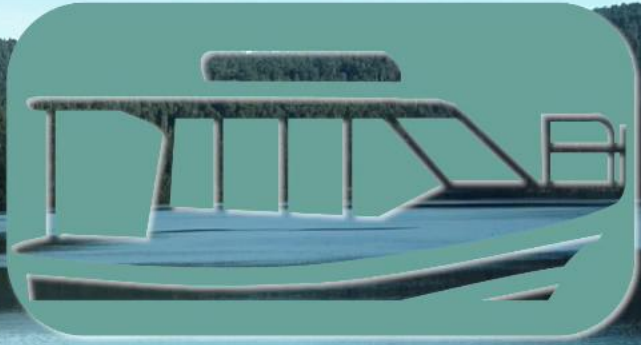

- Initiative developed during winter 2025 to regenerate areas of our operational site.
- To give back to the local community and land we operate in, ensuring we're leaving more than we take.
- Staff from Franz Josef Wilderness Tours plant and maintain these sites during quiet times.
- Recent clients have participated already - but as we grow this initiative there will be opportunity for partners and visitors to engage.

The Wilderness Tours Regeneration Project is a charitable trust founded by Franz Josef Wilderness Tours. The trust operates independently, but sources employee support from Franz Josef Wilderness Tours.
